EDITED BY EDWIN R. SELBY.

RAVENNA, OCT. 25, 1837.

THE ELECTION.

The contest is over-and the result will probably be a small majority against us in the Legislature. It is by no means the Ress encouraging to the Democracy. We contend against fearful odds, yet, the unbroken front with which the Democracy of the state have mot the enemy, amid the come and do likewise. corrupting influences of the unholy means which they have employed, speaks volumes of the existence of that pure spirit of liberty and equal rights, which first estimulated the apparently feeble band of patriots in resistance to British Aristocracy o Tyrany, at the time of the great struggle for the same rights-the same liberties, and the same great cause where. in we are now embarked. Let every Democrat feel, that what at this dark time we have gained is an accession of Principle and Faith, which neither the hope of reward or the fear of the frowns of a monied arristocracy can drive from the uncorrupted bosoms of those "who know their rights and knowing dare maintain Thank Heaven, our trust is not in the subtle diplomacy of Politics for success. We have never based our calculations on factitious panies or artificial causes, but in the stern integrity and honesty of the People. If we have hitherto had confi. dence in the integrity of principle and ectacle of an enlightened people, in-Lead of cowering under the powerful attacks of the panic batteries, the mighty engines wielded against them by their postical opponents-relying on their own ason-firm in the immutable principles of truth, in the face of derision and often times baughty brow-beatings, once more come forth, arm to arm, and shoulder to shoulder, in defence of their rights and in the exercise of the freemens remedy; their dear bought birthright. They have so far achieved a glorious result. The march of Truth, is onward. The spirit of the people is moving! They have given a loud rebuke to their enemies, an awful rebuke to the contemners of their pow-

If the corrupting influences of the before manifested, how panely do the results of the late election poin out their rods off. One plate to which was attach. angerous powers. In the strong holds ed a part of one centre post, lay by the Hulburt Amanda I the banks where almost every person business transactions is connected with rong bank influence in Indiana, with er mammoth state institution, and in Prode Island with a bank to every forty inhabitants, has caused so great a change at this particular time when the issue is between the people and the banks?

These are considerations which it behoves every Democrat to ponder on. In districts removed from bank influence the result has been widely different. Where the People have been left to themselves and the covictions of their own reason where they had no fear of "proscription for opiniou's sake" from these institutions, which have managed to entangle too many within their meshes, whe have gained—signally gained. All this speaks outly of the truth and ultimate triumph we say then that the scople must be triumphant. Let us be watchful of our rights. The issue is fairly made, and we can now firm'y trust in that success which must await the great cause of truth and reason.

We can not responably expect to conguer a powerful enemy at the first o.s.et. They have obtained a footbold and their dels are yet strong. Let us be ready them. Their shouts of Victory do fleter us. The panic of 1834 is yet the appoarance of victory, we are er, but cannot protect a friend.

the mast. They float proudly above us cheering every freemen to his duty. The Democrats in every quarter of the state are rendered doubly confident in the ultimate success of the measures for which we have all been contending. The motto of "Democracy and our Country," is before us-and we firmly believe, recent demonstrations strenghthen the coa viction that in less than one year it will grace our universal victory, as it has hitherto been our watchword to increasing

Our usual variety is crowded out this week to make room for the speech of Mr. Benton, to which we would respectfully nvite the attention of our readers.

LARGE FRUIT .- We were vesterday presented with a Pear, by Mr. David JENNINGS, measuring eleven and a half inches in circumference, one way, and leven and three quarters the other, and weighing eleven ounces. This is what we would call a smasher. You that can,

From the Ohio Review, Oct. 20. Tremenduous hurricane! four lives lost! one awelling house destroyed and number of others unro fed:

Besides much damage done to barns. or sts, lepces, orchards, &c. &c.

We have just returned from the scene of one of the most shocking calumities that it has ever fullen to our lot to record or witness. About three o'clock this morning before the slumbers of the night were b oken, the dwelling house of Mr. Fred. erick Sanford of Slow, was struck by a violent gale of wind, which raised it from the ground and scattered it into a thousand fragments. There was literally not one stick left upon another, and a more refunction scene of dessolation and ruin cannot be conceived.

A great part of the house lay scattered over an area of an acre of ground some six or eight rods from the place where it had formerly stood. Amid the remnant of broken timbers, of every thing thas had been in or about the house, were found the dead bodies of Mr. Sanford's Boles Cyrus mother and two of his sons, cold, wet and bruised and mangled; Mr. Sanford himself just alive, who died in a short time enesty of purpose. It is now greatly after, and his wife and daughter much in- Bierce L V. 2 breased. returns." Mrs. Sauford remembers jumping out of bed, but more than that she has no re collection, until she found herself upon the co d wet ground, unable to move. It is utterly impossible to describe the scene presented to the eye of the beholder in the vicinity of the dwelling house destroyed. We saw as many as four hogs killed by the timbers, one bed ten rods from where the bouse had stood, lodged 30 feet high Fanel Mrs in t'e top of a hickory tree, while another hed, and some other articles were a mile monied incorporations were never distant. Isaw no part of the roof except one or two broken ribs, though I was told part of a roof was found at least a hundred barn twenty rods distant, and beyond this five or six rods was an ox cart at least thirty rods from the place where it had finks and dependant on their favors, we stood, and if it went direct must have passod majorities against us. What but the ed over the barn. Large trees were broken down and torn off, fences scattered in every direction, apple treestorn up by wind was northeast, in breadth not more than thirty or forty rods. How far' it continued we have not heard. No one can form any idea of its destructiveness but those who witnessed its effects. As our paper is now ready for the press, we must defer further particulars this week.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.

Eighteen persons precipitated thirty feet .- About half past seven o'clock yesterday morning, a very serious accident occurred at the large ship yard on the south side of the basin. It appears that whilst about forcy of the workmen employed in building the steam ship Natchez, were in the act of carrying a piece of timber up into the vessel, the scuffolding gave way, by which eighteen of them precipitated to the ground, a distance of thirty fret! - some of them falling among loose timber, and others considerably injured by the falling of the upper part of the scaffolding. Ten of the sufferers are journeymen ship-carpenters;four apprentices to the business, and the other four were sawyers; all of them except two were seriously injured. We are happy to state, however, that up to six o'clock last evening, all were doing tolerably well, except Mr. Howard White, whose life is despaired of .- Balt. San.

PROPOSALS FOR PUBLISHING AT RAVENNA. PORTAGE COUNTY, ORIO,

A Semi-Montaly Agricultural Paper TO BE EXTITLED

The Western Agriculturist. AND FARMER'S AND MECHANIC'S REGISTER.

THE Subscriber, believing that the Farm-ing interest of the Western Reserve is sufficiently great to sustain an Aggicultural Paper, proposes publishing, at Ravenna, Portage county, a paper dovoted exclusively to that

The sact is now clearly demonstrated, that Agricultural Papers are of great advantage to the Firming interests of a country. In New-England and in New York, where the art of Agriculture is carried nearer to perfection than in any of the other States of the Union, there are several papers devoted to that subject which have a wide circulation.

Though the population of the Reserve consists chiefly of Farmers, yet there is not a pathere are no less than twenty-eight pritical and religious papers.

The Assiculturist will be strictly neutral in politics and religion—it will contain a corinformation most useful to the interest of The great improvements which are now oc-the great improvements which are now oc-cupying the attention of the Farming Public— the many new inventions in the implements of husbandry which are continually appearing, render it highly necessary that all who are cal-culating to carry the business to a great extent should be possessed of the earliest informa-tion on the subject. Now, when the culture tion on the subject. Now, when the culture of Sirk, and the growth of the Beet for the manufacture of Sugar is be coming the engrossmg topic of the age, it is important that the Farmers of the Reserve should be made acquainted with all the information to be had on the subject, and we shall give our attention on the procuring and deseminating knowledge to these interesting objects.

The first number will be issued some time in April, if a sufficient number of pubscribers shall be obtained to warrant it.

PROSPECTUS FOR

The Ohio Statesman. intend after the first of July next, to pube list in this city, a paper with the anove title to supersede the Wagrees Harrenna. It will appear in a new dress and on a mame

The success of a well conducted State pasper at the seat of Government, even in the Union, is of too much consequence to be overlooked by any one who takes an interest in public affairs of the domestic policy of the country. Of how much greater importance then must it he to the citizens of so figurials ing and powerful a S. ate as Ohio-whose po-ation, territory, population industry and ra-perishable resources are ignicely equalled by any State of the Union, and certainly never be rivalled by any of the magic is erioud that spring into existence, along the almost endless streams that pour their namual floods into the majestic Mississippi. It is a sort of central, or "neutral grount," where the in habitants of all other states meet, in their periodical migrations, mingling their opinions. Her government, her politics, her agriculture, commerce, and improvements in the facility of transportation and travel, will all therefore be of deep interest to the nation, and of great magnitude to herself. And a paper oleoding in its columns these various, though connected interests, cannot fall to meet the very general approbation of an enlightened public.

Satisfied that no people can be prosperon and happy without they are free—free in though, free in every good work, free from the stackels of vicious and mutaken legislation, the Ohio Statesman will espouse the ductrines of the good old Democratic school. The supremacy of the peonle, the rights of the States, and a light and simple governs ment-in contradistinction to a ponderous and complex one. These will be the cardina al principles that shall direct me in my colitorial labors, and upon which I shull dilute as time and circumstances require. Those who are g verned by nonest metaves and correct doctrines cannot stray far from the line of just-ce, nor commit political errors of any great magnitude, and such I sincerely hope may be the enviable lot of the "figure states an." Men may change, but principles are as en-during as the knowledge of "good and evil." The advocates of legalized monophies will always be distinguished from the friends of equal laws and individual inde, endence, until reason abad have lost her emp re and the native dignity of our race extinguished

Having scanned closely the private and political instory of Mr Van Buren, I carly be-came warm and active in his wom-nation and election to the exalted station he now fills, and from the evidences yet before us of his fitness for the office to which the partialities of his countrymen have premoted him, I am more than gratified at the riumph of correct principles in his elevation, and feel it a duty of conscience to give my utmost support to sustain his administration. The more the character of Mr. Van Buren is studied, and his acts examined into, the wider will public confidence be extended, and the more certain his success over opponents, who, while they envy and revile, yet admire and feel the force of hir talents, and the power of his unyielding integrity .

Democrats of Ohio! it is unnecessary for m to say more. To a v ry large portion of you I claim a personal as well as political acquain tance. But to be useful and make my paper respectable and independent. I must have your undivided support - a support which I know you are able, and I doubt not are most willing to give. Our interests are one, and inseperable, and my highest wish is to deserve that confidence which may be placed in me, in this undertaking.

Taums. - The "Onto Statusmas" will be Thems.—The "Onto STATESMAS" will be published weekly, (except during the aiting of the Legislature, when it will be issued twice a week.) at three dollers a year. Solderswill always be sent at the request of cress on the individuals without the movey if it is happened individuals without the movey if it is happened in the subsciber holding himself to be drawn on at pleasure. The impossibility of collecting accounts at a distance, except at great expense, is the cause of this necessary arrangement.

Persons to whom this prospectus is sent will b'ease circulate it, or hand it to a friend. Subsombers will have the Hemisphere sent them notil the change is made, if they require it, SAMUEL MEDARY.
